We Cannot Emphasize Too Strongly the Importance of Supplying All Needs in

Household Linens at Once

The Greater Part of the Linen Market Is Now Closed, and the small supply that will be received from time to time will be far inadequate to the demands.

Our assortments are now exceptionally complete and new importations have recently arrived that were started on their journey before the closing of the ports in Europe. THE PRICES ARE NO HIGHER, BECAUSE WE DID NOT HAVE TO PAY AN ADVANCE FOR THESE. But when the present assortments are exhausted the costs will be much greater.

We urge upon all our patrons and every one who has linen needs, to make their purchases as quickly as possible.

MANY INTERESTING VALUES ARE FEATURED IN THE FOLLOWING:

Napkins from $2.00 to $6.00 dozen. Table Cloths from $2.00 to $10.00 each. Damask from 80c to $1.50 the yard. Towels from $3.00 to $6.75 dozen. Linen Sheets, $5.40 to $10.00 pair. Linen Pillowcases, $1.00 to $2.25 pair. Pure Linen Crash, 121/2c to 17c yard.

Particular attention is directed to the assortments of Towel ing, in plain and fancy weaves and in all widths. Those who wish to hand-embroider for gifts can now make selections to best advantage: 15 to 26 inch widths, 25c to $1.00 vard. Second floor-Eleventh at Answers Charges, Saying Witnesses Gave False Testimony.

BEFORE HOUSE PROBERS

Reads 100-page Statement in Which He Explains Acts Complained Of.

In a 100-page statement, read by Justice Daniel Thew Wright, of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, to the gorically all of the impeachment charges brought against him by Wade H. Cooper. He declared that his conduct had been biameless throughout and charged certain witnesses with false testimony and mali-

Justice Wright first took up the charge that he had accepted a fee from the United States Savings Bank for adjusting the affairs of the bank and also from the National Bureau of Literature. He asserted that as a director of the bank he had consistently refused to give any legal advice and that his attitude, and the fact that his connection with the bank was a purely business one was well known to the board.

Finley Case Explained.

The defendant also went deeply into the Finley divorce case in which he set aside the decree of divorce. He answered the Cooper charge that he had performed this as a courtesy for his friend, Finley. this as a courtesy for his triend, Finley, saying that Finley's and his acquaintance was incidental and accidental, and the decree had been set aside solely because collusion had been practiced on the court and that Justice Stafford had concurred

In his view of the case.

Justice Wright touched the Rauscher case explaining that his relations with the defendant-wife were proper throughout and that he only conversed with her on one occasion and that was of a judi-cial nature.

Taking up the charge that he had shown favoritism to a street railway company, whose attorney had indorsed his note, Justice Wright declared that in thirty-six cases against this same company the claimant had been satisfied with the verdict.

Note Indorsement Personal.

Regarding the allegation that Attorney Charles A. Douglas had indorsed his note, Justice Wright declared that this ransaction was a personal favor so that is might become a director in the United States Savings Bank and that the note The Department of Commerce yesterday

Alexandria Board Rents Rear End of Old Peabody Building for Coming Year.

NEW CASES OF TYPHOID

Alexandria, Va., Aug. 26.-In order to eccommodate the increased school attendance expected at the public schools this scholastic session, which begins September 14, the city school board has obtained additional quarters in the rear end of the old Peabody Building at the northwest corner of King and Alfred streets.

There are three floors to the building and all will be used for school purposes during the coming year, giving accommodation to 125 pupils, although there will be sufficient space to accommodate ten additional pupils.

The building just rented by the achool board was formerly used as a public school, being sold by the city after the new building in Prince street was erected. re recently the end just renied was d by the Southern Railway Company Work of issuing permits to children to attend the public schools will be begun the week of September 7. for office purposes.

No new cases of typhold fever have been reported. Dr. J. A. Waddell, of the State board of health, Richmond, who is here investigating conditions under the direction of Dr. Edward A. Gorman, city health officer, has not yet completed his report. Dr. A. W. Freeman, of the State board of health, is expected to come to Alexandria tomorrow for the purpose of looking into the typhold situation Dr. Waddell is of the opinion that if the recommendations to be made in his repor are carried out the typhold epidemic will be quickly shated.
